

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	4
<hr/>
Chapter 1: Principles and methods
Introduction	6
Introduction to pharmacoeconomics	8
Perspective, costs, outcomes and discounting in pharmacoeconomic evaluations	12
Modelling in economic evaluation	16
Using cost-effectiveness results from abroad for local policy decisions	20
The social value of innovation	24
How to apply pharmacoeconomics in the hospital pharmacy	28
<hr/>
Chapter 2: Pharmaceutical policies
Financing hospital care and drugs in France	31
National guidance and local decision-making: is health technology assessment a help or a hindrance?	33
Innovative payment systems for medicines in Europe	36
The generic medicines market in Europe	40
<hr/>
Chapter 3: The practice of pharmacoeconomics
Determining the value of innovative pharmaceuticals at the hospital level	43
Establishing cost-effectiveness of genetic targeting of cancer therapies	46
Difficult decisions in the cost-effectiveness analysis of new cancer treatments	50
Pegfilgrastim – a health economic model to assess overall cost-effectiveness	55
<hr/>
Chapter 4: A new instrument for the assessment of pharmacoeconomic studies
From theory to practice: how to assess the quality of pharmacoeconomic studies?	59
A practical instrument for assessing the quality of pharmacoeconomic studies: how it was developed	60
A practical instrument for assessing the quality of pharmacoeconomic studies: how to use it	63
Scorecard for the assessment of pharmacoeconomic studies	66
<hr/>
Faculty acknowledgements	7